Baptist wins Group Organiser Partnership Award at Spring Harvest 2007

Philippa Hosegood, from Dormansland Baptist Church, has won a Group Organisers Partnership Award at this year's Spring Harvest. She has been bringing people to the event for seventeen years, and those who come nominated her in recognition of all her hard work.

'She is totally reliable, enthusiastic and this year has included families from four different churches: two in London, one in Surrey and one in Sussex. She has various health problems but refuses to let these hinder her work' said one of those nominating her.
